

WESTERN AUSTRALIAN TREE CLIMBING CHAMPIONSHIPS 2012
SYNERGY PARKLANDS KINGS PARK
Volunteer Invitation

Hello Tree People,

The Western Australian Tree Climbing Championships has now been finalised. Tree Climbing W.A. (TCWA) wishes to invite you to assist in the 2012 event.

This event is shaping up to be another fantastic weekend which will be held over 2 days with a special Master class workshop prior to the event. We expect the official release of event information next week.

As a bit of a sneak peek for you this is what you could expect:

Friday 13th April 8.30am – 4.30pm Tree Climbing Master class (No volunteers required).

- Presenters Scott Forrest (current ITCC world tree climbing champion) and Joe Harris (current Australian champion and ITCC runner-up) will run a day long workshop to demonstrate how modern climbing techniques can make your work safer, faster and more energy efficient.

Saturday 14th April 7.30am – 5.00pm WATCC Preliminary Events.

- Aerial Rescue, Work Climb, Throw Line.

Sunday 15th April 7.30am – 5.00pm WATCC Preliminary and Master Event.

- Speed Belay, Foot Lock and Masters Challenge.

Our State competition heavily relies on our volunteers to participate to ensure we present another world-class event. W.A has a great reputation in holding quality events and we would be grateful to have you on board for the 2012 event.

Volunteer Positions Available

1. Judges and Tree Tech.
2. Event set up and pack up.
3. Event scorers.
4. Score runners.
5. General event assistance.

Should you (or anyone else you may know) wish to get involved again in some capacity we would appreciate if you could make contact with us either by return email or contact Jeremy Thomas direct on 0434-604-091 by Friday 24th February 2012.

Kind regards
Jeremy Thomas
